The Dowager Empress was simple in her tastes. She presided over court functions with great dignity, on most occasions wearing Western dress, especially when she came into contact with Americans or Europeans. SO SAYS EMINENT SPECIALIST.

OF JAPAN IS DEAD

Although Sick for Some Time End Came Suddenly-Royal Family Summoned,

TOKIO, April 2.-The Dowager Empress Haruke died at the Imperial Villa at Namazu to-day. She had been suffering for some time from heart trouble.

Her Majesty passed away suddenly n the presence of Emperor Yoshihito, the Empress and other members of the royal family, who had been sumnoned from the capital.

The Imperial patient had developed deceptive symptoms. She displayed increased vigor and asked for food. A short time afterward Her Majesty became unconscious. The doctors in attendance applied restoratives, but without avail, and she died without recovering sensibility.
